THE PROMISE OF SPRING

Springtime is a green time
When the leaves come bursting out,
Springtime is a new time
With vitality about.

Springtime is the seed time
When the plants begin to grow,
Springtime is nesting time,
When the birds fly to and fro.

Springtime is a fresh time,
When we can begin anew,
Praise the Lord for springtime,
For everything pure and true.

Lily S. Thomas

Songs of Spring

I love all the songs that spring sings –
The calls of birds on outstretched wings,
The tree toad's trill, the bullfrog's bass
And the bees' hum over the flowers' face.
The tap-tap-tap of the sweet spring rain
While the wind at dawn adds its soft refrain,
And my own heart singing merrily
As it joins the happy symphony

Jean Brabham Mckinney

TIME TO REJOICE

Open the windows and let the sun in.
Oh, listen how sweet the birds sing;
The bond of winter has broken away,
It's time to rejoice and greet spring.

Hillsides are lovely in green once again,
And blossoms appear on the trees.
Flowers are waking aroused by spring's kiss,
And lilac scent drifts on the breeze.

Earth now is bursting with joy and rebirth.
Oh, how can a soul fail to sing!
After life's winter comes heart-peace and hope –
All part of God's promise called spring.
