- Shirley Shirley - Feb. 24th
- Pam Honeycutt - Feb. 26th

A SPECIAL THANK YOU for the royal treatment at the Valentine Banquet! Our creative team of decorators did it again – absolutely beautiful décor as the Fellowship Hall was transformed into a lovely banquet room. The food was great and the youth did a fantastic job as our servers. There were many hours donated prior to and during the event that brought the banquet to life and we thank each of you for your time and using your talents.

Note: The March calendar is on the stand beside the office door if you would like to pick one up.

The Dream Unfolds

“Know that the LORD is God. It is he who made us, and we are his.” Psalm 100:3

God’s dream for us begins to unfold when we start seeing ourselves through His eyes. In God’s eyes we are all extraordinarily special.

The Bible says:

God made you in His image. You reflect the most Wonderful Being in the universe (Genesis 1:27).

You are a child of God (1 John 3:1).

You were created for God’s pleasure (Ephesians 1:4-6; Psalm 149:4).

You are unique. There is no one else like you. You are one of a kind (Psalm 139:13-14).

You are given gifts by God that are made just for you (1 Corinthians 12:4-6, 11).

God has called you to do what you do. Your calling from God is custom made, just for you and no one else. (Psalm 138:8; Ephesians 2:10).

God knows everything about you and He loves you just as you are (Psalm 139: 1-3).

God created you and God only creates great things (Genesis 1:31).

God knows your name. You belong to Him (Isaiah 43:1).

God loved you first (1 John 4:19).

Each morning when you get up, look in the mirror and say, “I am unique... I am loved... I am God’s child.”

The Bible promises that nothing can separate you from God’s love (Romans 8:35-38). Your identity is firm in His love and in His image. What a beautiful praise!

Prayer:

Thank you, Lord, for loving me and making me so special. Help me to believe it and live out Your dream for my life. Amen.
