What Kind Are You?

A lot of Christians are like wheelbarrows – not good unless pushed.

Some are like canoes – they need to be paddled.

Some are like kites – if you don't keep a string on them, they fly away.

Some are like kittens – they are more content when petted.

Some are like footballs – you can't tell which way they will bounce next.

Some are like balloons – full of air and ready to blow up.

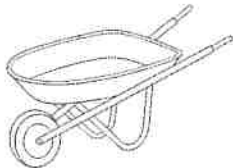

Some are like trailers – they have to be pulled.

Some are like neon lights – they keep going on and off.

Others are letting the Holy Spirit lead them.

And some are like a good watch; open faced, pure gold, quietly busy and full of good works.

A TEACHER'S NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS

1. A GOOD TEACHER should worship the Lord. Therefore, I resolve to attend opening exercises, to attend both worship services, and to maintain private devotions.
2. A GOOD TEACHER sets a good example for others to follow. Therefore, I resolve to live consistently, to shun evil and to reject all temptation to compromise.
3. A GOOD TEACHER prepares himself for his job of teaching. Therefore, I resolve to take some study course, to prepare and plan my weekly lessons, to attend the teachers' meetings, to get plenty of rest on Saturday nights, to see that my class room is ready before time on Sunday morning, and to dress neatly.
4. A GOOD TEACHER is punctual and dependable. Therefore, I resolve to be present 15 minutes before beginning time on Sunday morning, to be regular in attendance, to notify my superintendent in case of unavoidable absence, to see that a proper substitute is ready when I have to be absent.
5. A GOOD TEACHER is a good visitor. Therefore I resolve to contact my absentees and to visit new pupils and my prospects personally.
6. A GOOD TEACHER is skillful in the use of the Bible and seeks constantly to lead every member of his class to be a skillful user of the Bible. Therefore, I resolve to use my Bible in my teaching, to encourage all members of my class to bring their Bibles, and to carefully plan opportunities for them to use their Bibles.
7. A GOOD TEACHER is a soul-winner. Therefore, I will do my best to win every unsaved member of my class to Christ.

Here's how to live at peace with others

Pray for them.

Erase all negative thoughts about them.

Ask them for forgiveness if you've wronged them.

Carefully evaluate your own motives.

Emphasize love, rather than hate.
