Back-to-School Backpack Campaign:

There is a donation jar in the vestibule if you would like to make a donation to help with the cost of our Backpack Campaign. We plan on filling 48 backpacks with school supplies to help with the cost of returning to school. This is a great outreach program as not only do the recipients get a backpack full of school supplies, they also will receive some Gospel literature. The backpacks will be distributed next Sunday morning, July the 23rd. Thank you in advance for your ongoing generosity – whenever there is a need or project, you all always step up and make things happen. To God be the Glory!

The other fellows shoes

Pray, find no fault with the man who limps
Or stumbles along the road
Unless you have worn the shoes he wears,
Or struggled beneath his load.

There may be tacks in his shoes that hurt,
Though hidden away from view,
Or the burden he bears, placed on your back,
Might cause you to stumble, too.

Don't sneer at the man who's down today,
Unless you have felt the blow
That caused his fall or felt the shame
That only the fallen know.

You may be strong, but still the blows
That were his, if dealt to you,
In the selfsame way at the selfsame time,
Might cause you to stagger, too.

Don't be too harsh with the man who sins,
Or pelt him with words or stones
Unless you are sure, yes, double sure
That you have not sins of your own.

For you know, perhaps, if the tempter's voice
Should whisper as soft to you
As it did to him when he went astray,
Would cause you to falter, too.

Something to Think About

If you choose to work, you will succeed; if you don't, you fail. If you neglect your work, you will dislike it; if you do it well, you will enjoy it. If you join little cliques, you will be self-satisfied. If you make friends widely, you will be interesting. If you gossip, you will be slandered; if you mind your own business, you will be liked.

If you act like a boor, you will be despised; if you act like a human being, you will be respected. If you spurn wisdom, wise people will spurn you; if you seek wisdom, they will seek you. If you adopt a pose of boredom, you will be a bore; if you show vitality, you will be alive.

If you spend your free time playing bridge, you will be a good bridge player; if you spend it reading, discussing and thinking of things that matter, you will be an educated person.
