WELCOME

Happy Father's Day

ONLY GOD CAN MAKE A DAD!

"A good father is one of the most unsung, unpraised, unnoticed, and yet one of the most valuable assets in our society."

~Billy Graham, Christian Evangelist

Week of June 18, 2023 Schedule of Services:

Sunday School 10:00 A.M.

Sunday Morning Worship Service 10:45 A.M.

* Today's offering will be applied to our Helping Hand Fund (a fund set up to help the widows of the church with heating cost in the winter).

In honor of Father's Day, we will be recognizing some special fathers in today's service. In addition, we will be honoring all of the men of the church with a gift as you exit the vestibule after services.

There will be NO Sunday Evening Worship tonight.

Tuesday, Meet for Prayer 6:00 P.M.

* Special Prayer Request: God's direction for a new pastor

Wednesday, Bible Study & Prayer Meeting 7:00 P.M.

Happy Birthday: Caylee Williams & Janice King - June 12th

* A SPECIAL THANK YOU * to all who donated their time and talent to make VBS a success. We would like to express our appreciation to our VBS Director Penny Erwin & Assistant Mary Lynn McNabb for their dedication and labor of love. Thank you to all our workers, assistants, and teachers who donated their time and talent to make VBS a success. Most of all we thank God for allowing us the opportunity to share the good news of Jesus with our VBS boys and girls. The dinosaurs may be gone but the seed has been planted!

This bulletin is dedicated to the loving memory of those precious fathers who are in the arms of Jesus.

When someone you love becomes a memory,
the memory becomes a treasure.

JUST LIKE HIS DAD

Well, what are you going to be, my boy,
When you have reached manhood's years;
A doctor, a lawyer, or actor great,
Moving throngs to laughter and tears?
But he shook his head, as he gave reply,
In a serious way he had.
"I don't think I'd care to be any of them;
I want to be like my dad!"
He wants to be like his Dad! You men,
Did you ever think, as you pause,
That the boy who watches your every move
Is building a set of laws?
He's molding a life you're the model for,
And whether it's good or bad,
Depends on the kind of example set
To the boy who'd be like his dad.
Would you have him go everywhere you go?
Have him do just the things you do?
And see everything that your eyes behold,
And woo all the gods you woo?
When you see the worship that shines in the eyes
Of your lovable little lad,
Could you rest content if he gets his wish,
And grows to be like his dad?

A careful man I ought to be;
A little fellow follows me;
I do not dare to go astray
For fear he'll go the selfsame way.
I cannot once escape his eyes,
Whate'er he sees me do, he tries;
Like me, he says, he's going to be,
The little chap who follows me.
He thinks that I am good and fine,

An Open Letter

Dear Dad,
There are so many things I'd like
To tell you face to face;
I either lack the word or fail
To find the time or place.
But in this special letter, Dad,
You'll find, at least, in part,
The feelings that the passing years
Have left within my heart.
The memories of childhood days,
And all that you have done
To make our home a happy place
And growing up such fun!
I still recall the walks we took,
The games we often played,
Those confidential chats we had
While resting in the shade.
This letter comes to thank you, Dad,
For needed words of praise;
The counsel and the guidance, too,
That shaped my grown-up days.
No words of mine can tell you, Dad,
The things I really feel,
But you must know my love for you
Is lasting warm and real.
You made my world a better place,
And through the coming years;
I'll keep these memories of you
As cherished souvenirs!
Your grateful son.

Believes in every work of mine
The base in me he must not see,
The little chap who follows me.
I must remember as I go,
Through summer's fun and winter's
snow,
I'm building for the years to be
The little chap who follows me!
