Just Inside Memory's Door

Today I opened memory's door and softly stepped inside,
I looked around and soon I found old friends were by my side!
I've thought of them so many times since days of long ago,
Though miles and years have made a change – each one, this day, I know.
I saw my special schoolmates, too, and recalled the days of yore,
Of pleasant conversations held outside the classroom door.
I also saw my neighbors there upon my memory's page;
Some were happy youngsters...others...bent with age.
For me...this once...time has stood still, allowing me once more
To visit with old friends of mine just inside memory's door.
I'll shut the door so softly now, as though to close a book.
But someday I'll reopen it and take another look!

God don't break promises
But he does break chains!

INDEPENDENCE DAY DANIEL WEBSTER

If we abide by the principles taught in the Bible, our country will prosper. But if we and our posterity neglect the instructions and authority in this book, no man can tell how sudden a catastrophe may overtake us and bury our glory in profound obscurity. This is the book that inspired thousands of men and women to travel to a New World where they could live and worship God in freedom. This is the book our forefathers drew upon for the great principles included in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution. This is the book that the people of America—in every walk of life—have turned to for strength, for comfort and for guidance. This is the Book that is in every court of this broad land, a reminder of America's ideal of freedom and justice for all. This is the Book that its enemies burn – the Book they smear and fear, because it proclaims the dignity of the individual and teaches that all men are created in the image of God. America still needs the Bible! We need courage to face today's problems and divine wisdom to solve them, just as our forefathers did. We need to renew the spirit of faith in the Book that is the foundation of our personal well-being, and cornerstone of our country's greatness. Let this Book revive in us the spirit of our fathers to face tomorrow unafraid. Let us, too, turn to the Book that reveals the mind of God, His holiness, His love for lost sinners and His salvation through Jesus Christ.
