Signs

Daffodils and tulips
Impatient underground,
In March sent up a crocus
To take a look around.
She called: "It still is winter
There's frost on everything."
But a passerby, who saw her said:
"A crocus – it is Spring!!"

~ Sudie S. Hager

Spring

A robin singing in the trees
A golden daffodil;
The gentle murmur of a breeze
The call of whip-poor-wills.
Spring brings new life to all the world
New hope to all the land;
The world responds like magic
To this touch from God's own hand.

~ Virginia Wave McPheeters.

The Ten Most Wanted Men

1. The man who tries to be the right example to every child rather than talk about it.
2. The man who has a passion to help rather than a passion to be helped.
3. The man who is willing to say, "I was wrong, I'm sorry."
4. The man who will look at temptation squarely and say "No."
5. The man who puts God's business above any other.
6. The man who throws himself totally into a project, then gives credit for its success to his helpers.
7. The man who has a ready smile and a pat on the back for others.
8. The man who brings his children to church rather than sending them.
9. The man who can see his own faults before he sees the faults of others.
10. The man who gives his money, time and talent without thought of return.

Tears and Heartaches

A popular song of some years ago had these searching lyrics:

*If tears were promises
and heartaches were gold,
I'd have all the money
My pockets would hold.*

Tears and heartaches come to all of us. We don't enjoy them. We don't seek them out. They're just part of living. But as we begin to focus our lives on Jesus Christ, He not only wipes away our tears and eases our heartaches – He uses us to dry the tears of others. We become a part of God's answer in others' lives. Are you ready for that? How much better to dry someone's tears rather than cause someone's tears.
