* A SPECIAL THANK YOU * to all who helped make Homecoming 2023 a success. Thank you so much to our home folks that sang during the pre-service – what a blessing! As usual – everything about Homecoming was fantastic and we just praise the Lord for bringing all efforts to a memorable celebration.

Church Note: Our church will be opening the door for church membership next Sunday the 8th. Of course, you do not have to be a member to worship here but we would like for you to prayerfully consider this option as we already claim you as ours anyway. Please see one of the deacons regarding any questions. Also see Donna in the office for an application.

Anthem to God for Autumn

Fields of countless corn shocks
All in perfect line Like a guard of soldiers,
Tall and straight and fine,
Pumpkins piled beside them
Orange-colored shapes,
Frost-killed vines a-trailing
Like torn and tattered drapes;
A pheasant comes a-flying,
A streak of gorgeous hue
Blending with the sunset
Of multi-colors, too.
In the distant wood lot
A squirrel climbs the trees,
While leaves of gold and crimson
Are trembling in the breeze.
Oh, when it comes to autumn
Is there not a special reason
For praising God for beauties
Of this specially lovely season?

Roy J. Wilkins

AUTUMN'S BOUNTY

When Summer packs her bag and goes
South to other lands;
Autumn moves in swiftly,
Bearing gifts in both her hands;
Baskets full of pumpkins,
Crisp red apples, too
Everything that's needed
For a fresh-baked pie or two
To warm you after dinner
On a crisp clear autumn night
Or set a festive table
For a holiday delight.
I always welcome Autumn,
Decked out in leaves of gold
She brings the season's treasures,
Her bounty to behold!
