To our AMERICAN HEROES on Veterans Day, Saturday, November 11: We all owe much gratitude to those who have fought for us and our country. Because we treasure the peace and freedom we have, we salute every U.S. military man and woman, both past and present, for admirably fighting for and maintaining our freedoms. THANK YOU VETS!

Our flag does not fly because the wind moves it...
it flies with the last breath of each soldier who died protecting it.

THE ONLY ONE IN THIRTY-FIVE YEARS

A soldier in the American Third Army was sent to a rest camp after a period of active service. When he returned to his outfit, he wrote a letter to General George Patton and thanked him for the splendid card he had received. General Patton wrote back that for thirty-five years he had sought to give all the comfort and convenience he could to his men, and added that this was the first letter of thanks he had received in all his years in the Army.

There are few points at which human nature is more lacking than in gratitude. Parents must constantly say to children who have received some gift, "Now what do you say?" As we grow older we become hardened to the good things of life and do not think of thanking God who is the giver of "every good gift and every perfect gift."

THEY DID THEIR SHARE

On Veteran's Day we honor
Soldiers who protect our nation.
For their service as our warriors,
They deserve our admiration.
Some of them were drafted;
Some were volunteers;
For some it was just yesterday;
For some it's been many years;
In the jungle or the desert,
On land or on the sea,
They did whatever was assigned
To produce a victory.
Some came back; some didn't.
They defended us everywhere.
Some saw combat; some rode a desk;
All of them did their share.
No matter what the duty,
For low pay and little glory,
These soldiers gave up normal lives,
For duties mundane and gory.
Let every veteran be honored;
Don't let politics get in the way.
Without them, freedom would have died;
What they did, we can't repay.
We owe so much to them,
Who kept us safe from terror,
So when we see a uniform,
Let's say "thank you" to every wearer.
