GOOD FRIDAY – It was for you! In humility Jesus rode into Jerusalem on a donkey (symbolizing peace and humility), knowing the suffering, death and resurrection that lay ahead. Love for each and every one of us propelled him forward. In this Holy Week, may we realize that love more deeply.

Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord...
Luke 19:38

Hosanna to the Son of David. Matthew 21:9

Happy Anniversary: Carl & Nancy Ballard

A celebration of Jesus' life and resurrection will be held next Sunday morning (EASTER SUNDAY) beginning with our Easter Sunrise Service at 7:00 A.M. at the church, followed by breakfast at the Fellowship Hall.

Easter Sunday Services continue at the church at 10:00 A.M. & 10:45 A.M. (No evening service)

The Easter Message

Of all the words that have been said
Throughout recorded time
The angel's news: "He is not dead!"
Is, doubtless, most sublime,
It underscores Christ's work and worth;
It proves His promise true
And offers hope to all on earth
Like nothing else can do,
Apostles bowed by loss and grief,
By shaken faith and fear,
Sought evidence before belief
Like many now and here,
He gave them proof - the proof we heed
On every Easter Day
The proof Christ lives and is, indeed,
The Truth, the Life, the Way,
Margaret Rorke

His path led to Jerusalem
Upon that sunlit day,
Hosannas ringing in the air,
Palms strewn along the way.
His path led to the city
Where mobs would shout and cry,
And then as quickly turn on Him,
And cast Him out to die.
He wore no kingly raiment,
No jewel-encrusted crown,
And chose a little borrowed colt
To take Him through the town.
The longest week in history
Was crowding to be born...
The shadow of a cross was there,
And finally, Easter Morn!

Good Friday marks the day when wrath and mercy met at the cross. That's why Good Friday is so dark and so Good!

The Entry into Jerusalem

When they came near to Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent forth two of His disciples, and said to them, "Go into it, you will find a colt tied, a colt on which no one has ever sat. Loose him and bring him here." "And if any man says to you, 'Why are you doing this?' say that the Lord has need of him, and he will send the colt hither." And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on the colt's back. And Jesus sat upon him. And many spread their garments on the way. Others cut down branches off the trees and strewed them on the way. And they that went before and they that followed cried, "Hosanna! Blessed is He that comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed be the kingdom of our father David that comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest!" Jesus entered into Jerusalem and into the temple. And when He had looked round about upon all things, now the eventide was come, and He went out unto Bethany with His twelve disciples.
