The Ten Commandments For a Happy Home

1. God first.
2. Join a church and worship regularly.
3. Have a blessing at meals and family worship.
4. Be loyal to your family always.
5. Don't air family differences to neighbors: tell God. He understands.
6. Educate yourself to your job. Be the best father or mother possible.
7. Let your family know you love them.
8. Don't be afraid of sacrifice; there is joy in so doing.
9. Talk over all business together; understand one another.
10. Be ready to forgive and always close the days as friends.

All Brothers and Sisters

God, do not let me fail to see the part in each one made in the image of Thee. Let me overlook the cut of hair, the oddities in things to wear, differences in accent or color of skin. Let me be aware how all are kin. Let me love each one as Jesus would, counting all brothers and sisters, as Christians should.

HOME

I have slipped away to the Homeland,
To my mansion wondrous fair,
Rejoice with me then in my gladness
Remember I have left every care.
Grieve not for the house that I lived in,
As you lay me away 'neath the sod.
Remember the one who dwelt in it
Has gone to be with her God.
For the little old house that I lived in
Was wind-shaken, old and decayed,
It had weathered the storms and the tempest
And the lightening around it had played.
The Saviour who loves me so dearly,
Who walked by my side all the way,
Saw my little old house was crumbling
So He bade me haste away.
For me He has finished a mansion
In the Homeland over the sea;
He has it all ready and waiting,
And so He has come after me.
And in it I shall dwell forever,
Away from all sickness and pain,
For Jesus has purchased my freedom
And cleansed me from every stain.

Do you have this trouble?

A church in the central states (name and place withheld – but it could be your church) had this pointed statement in their bulletin recently:

INDIFFERENCE and carelessness in spiritual things seem to go hand in hand. During our worship services there is getting to be an increasing amount of whispering, reading of Sunday School papers, note-passing, inattention, and loss of the SENSE OF THE PRESENCE OF GOD in this place. From the moment the prelude begins until the final unspoken AMEN at the close of the service, let there be quietness and attention given, not only to the pastor, but also to the Lord's voice through him. This applies to all, not only the children!

WHAT IS LOVE

It is Silence
when your words would hurt.
It is Patience
when your neighbor is curt.
It is Deafness
when a scandal flows.
It is Thoughtfulness
for other's woes.
It is Promptness
when stern duty calls.
It is Courage
when misfortune falls.

Every Day is Easter

"Easter comes but once a year,"
So many people say,
But, to a person saved from sin,
It's Easter every day!
A man, when saved or "born again"
His life, to Christ, will give,
And, as a new-born babe in Christ,
He's just begun to live.
"I am the resurrection, life,"
The Saviour, one day, said:
"And he, believing in my Work,
Shall live, though he be dead."
And that well known Apostle, Paul,
In Philippi made plain:
"For me to live is Jesus Christ,
For me to die is gain."
So when the Blood of Christ, our Lord,
Redeems a soul from sin;
Every day is Easter,
For Jesus lives within!
