God, Are You There?

I'm way down here!
You're way up there!
Are you sure you can hear my faint, faltering prayer?

For I'm so unsure of just how to pray
To tell you the truth, God,
I don't know what to say...

I just know I am lonely
and vaguely disturbed, Bewildered and restless,
confused and perturbed...

And they tell me that prayer
helps to quiet the mind
And to unburden the heart for in stillness we find

A newborn assurance that someone does care
and someone does answer
each small sincere prayer.

My God is No Stranger

I've never seen God,
but I know how I feel...
It's people like you who make Him "so real"...

It seems that I pass Him
so often each day...
In the faces of people
I meet on my way...

He's the stars in the heavens,
a smile on some face...
A leaf on a tree
or a rose in a vase...

He's winter and autumn
and summer and spring...
In short, God is Every Real, Wonderful Thing...

I wish I might meet Him
much more than I do...
I would if there were more people like you.

The Summer Fades

The summer fades and autumn comes too soon,
And I who ran with such a quickened pace,
Walk slower now, for it is long past noon
And I have miles to travel in the race.
There is much work to do before the night
And every moment must be made to count,
For here are songs I must find time to write,
And there are hilltops that I long to mount.
The evening bells ring softly o'er the air
And lamps are lighted all along the way.
And it is time to talk to God in prayer,
For now there is a waning of the day.
Like leaves that fall upon the cold brown earth
The summer fades and memories pile high.
One starts his journey when he's given birth;
There is time to live, a time to die!
