THANK YOU LORD

We pray when there's a crisis
And when things are going bad
But seldom do we talk to God
To tell Him that we're glad.

We pray for things we just must have
To make our lives complete,
But seldom do we thank the Lord
For shoes upon our feet.

We pray for those who care not well
And need His healing hand,
But rarely we say "Thank you God"
Each morning when we stand.

He must know that we're grateful though
We know that He's so smart
He knows what's in our minds and souls
And sees inside each heart

But still we could at least say "Thanks"
Our gratefulness express
We say that much to others
Who have given us much less

So next time when we gather 'round
And bow our heads to pray
Let's take some time to thank the Lord
For all we have – each day.

~ Linda Headley

THREE LITTLE WORDS

Just three little words-
But, oh how much they say.
"I love you," "hold me tight,"
"Stay by me," "let us pray."

Learning words in childhood
At my mother's knee
Was, oh, so very simple
As they were taught to me.

These words have never left me-
I use them o'er and o'er,
And as life is slipping by me
I use them even more.

And there are many others
I've learned along the way-
"Take my hand," "I need you,"
And "never go away."

God hears these words-
Each simple little line.
Now I wait for Him to say,
"Come...you're mine."

~ Emma Fajen MacFarlane

We Gather Together

We gather together to ask the Lord's blessing;
He chastens and hastens his will to make known;
The wicked oppressing now cease from distressing,
Sing praises to his name: He forgets not his own.

Beside us to guide us, our God with us joining,
Ordaining, maintaining His kingdom divine;
So from the beginning the fight we were winning;
Thou, Lord, wast at our side, All glory be thine!

We all do extol thee, thou leader triumphant,
And pray that thou still our defender wilt be.
Let thy congregation escape tribulation;
Thy name be ever praised! O Lord, make us free!
Amen
