IN HONOR OF PRESIDENTS' DAY – MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17th

GEORGE WASHINGTON

First president of the United States (1732–1799)

George Washington served two four-year terms, winning re-election in 1792. He is referred to as the father of our nation because of the critical role he played in the founding of the United States. As the president of United States, he aspired to create a nation able to survive in a world torn apart by the war between Britain and France.

His image is used on the one dollar bill and the quarter dollar coin to commemorate his legacy. At the Mount Rushmore Memorial George Washington, was depicted in stone. Also built in his honor was one of the most well known American landmarks, The Washington Monument.

Sayings of Abraham Lincoln

Thoughts For The Day

The greatest handicap: fear

The best day: today

The most useless asset: pride

The greatest mistake: giving up

The greatest comfort: work well done

The most disagreeable persons: the complainers

The worst bankruptcy: loss of enthusiasm.

This is Just a Resting Place

Sometimes the Road of Life seems long
As we travel through the years,
And, with a heart that's broken
And eyes brimful of tears.

We falter in our weariness
And sink beside the way;

But God leans down and whispers

"Child, there'll be another day."

And the road will grow much smoother

And much easier to face;

So do not be disheartened

This is just a Resting Place.
