A visiting minister was very long-winded. Worse, every time he would make a good point during his sermon and a member of the congregation responded with "Amen" or "That's right, preacher" he would get wound up even more and launch into another lengthy discourse. Finally, the host pastor started responding to every few sentences with "Amen, Pharaoh!" The guest minister wasn't sure what that meant, but after several more "Amen, Pharaohs" he finally concluded his very lengthy sermon.

After the service concluded and the congregation had left, the visiting minister turned to his host and asked, "What exactly did you mean when you said 'Amen, Pharaoh?'" His host replied, "I was telling you to let my people go!"

Have You Thought About Your Soul?

Have you ever stopped to wonder
What this life is all about?
Why you're here and where you're going.
When your lease on time runs out?
Maybe you've been far too busy,
Trying hard to reach your goal;
Would you let me ask you kindly,
Have you thought about your soul?
You may reach the highest portals,
And your dreams may all come true;
Wealth and fame may be your portion,
And success may shine on you.
All your friends may sing your praises,
Not a care on you may roll;
What about the Great Tomorrow
Have you thought about your soul?

Don't forget our days are numbered,
Though you may be ridin' high;
But like all of us poor mortals,
Someday you'll just up and die.
Your success and fame and glory
Won't be worth the bell they toll;
Let me ask you just one question,
Have you thought about your soul?

If you never thought it over,
Spend a little time today;
There is nothing more important
That will ever come your way,
Than the joy of sins forgiven.
And to know you've been made whole
In the name of Christ the Saviour
Have you thought about your soul?

Two neighborhood dogs were sitting in the back of a pickup one summer day.
"I can't figure it out," said the first dog. "I'm in perfect shape. I run around all day getting lots of exercise. I eat well and sleep a lot, but I am always anxious."

"About what?" the other dog asked.

"I don't know," the first dog said.

"Well, why don't you go to a psychiatrist?"

The first dog looked pained. "How can I? I'm not allowed on the couch!"
