Palm Sunday - Hosanna to the King!

Between Palm Sunday and Good Friday,
the Good Shepherd became the Passover Lamb.

THANK YOU JESUS!

GOOD FRIDAY – It was for you! In humility Jesus rode into Jerusalem on a donkey (symbolizing peace and humility), knowing the suffering, death and resurrection that lay ahead. Love for each and every one of us propelled him forward. In this Holy Week, may we realize that love more deeply.

Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord...
Luke 19:38

"Hosanna"

Hosanna! the people shout,
Waving palms and spreading coats.
Rejoice, rejoice, let us sing out,
Our Savior, whom our hearts devote.

In humble grace, the Lord arrives,
On a donkey, gentle and meek.
His love and mercy forever thrives,
As palms lay strewn across the street.

Hosanna! we cry, with voices raised,
Acknowledging Jesus, the chosen one.
Our faith and devotion forever praised,
On this blessed day, God's only Son

A Donkey's Tale

A humble donkey trotted by,
carrying a King without a sigh.
Palm branches and cloaks line his way,
the crowd cheers on this holy day.
The donkey knows his task with pride,
he carries the Man who'll save mankind.
Beneath his hooves a carpet of green,
the King of Kings riding serene.

A Crowded Street

A crowded street filled with grace,
People gather to see His face.
Hosannas and palm fronds abound,
A King is riding into town.
The streets are filled with joy and peace,
For the One who'll grant them eternal release.
Gathered here on this Palm Sunday,
We sing and shout in a solemn way
