Statehood Day - Tennessee officially became a state on June 1, 1796. The name "Tennessee" originated from the Cherokee word "Tanasi," which referred to a Cherokee village located in what is now Monroe County, TN. The state is named after its principal river, which has been interpreted to mean "bend in the river".

The Official Salute/Pledge to the Flag of Tennessee:

"Three white stars on a field of blue, God,
keep them strong and forever true.
It is with pride and love that we Salute the flag of TENNESSEE."

PSALM 23

"The Lord is my shepherd;	That's relationship
I shall not want.	That's supply
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:	That's rest
he leadeth me beside the still waters.	That's refreshment
He restoreth my soul:	That's healing
he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness	That's guidance
for his name's sake.	That's purpose
Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,	That's testing
I will fear no evil:	That's protection
for thou art with me;	That's faithfulness
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.	That's discipline
Thou preparest a table before me in
the presence of mine enemies:	That's hope
thou anointest my head with oil;	That's consecration
my cup runneth over.	That's abundance
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life:	That's a blessing
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord	That's security
for ever."	That's eternity

It's not what we have in our lives

But who is in our lives!

Psalm 23

Every day – every night – from the cradle to the grave – all along our pilgrim's journey, until we reach our Heavenly Home, we are somewhere in Psalm 23. We move about, we rest; sometimes we are in danger, we are protected; we are sad and comforted; we may wander and get lost, we are rescued. We are given food and shelter. All our needs are provided and we share our abundance with others. The Psalmist, David, had himself been a shepherd, and knew the cares and affections of a good shepherd for his flock. In Psalm 23, sheep represent Christians in the care of a dependable and trustworthy shepherd. Fortunate, indeed, are all who follow the Good Shepherd.
