Monday, Memorial Day ~ Remember and be grateful!

Take a moment this Memorial Day and reflect and thank those who serve our great nation in roles of protection. This includes our first responders and military members. It is also time to remember and honor those who have paid the ultimate sacrifice in that service. On this "Decoration Day" as it was called originally, take time to visit a veterans cemetery or a veterans home, or if you see a veteran thank them for their service.

Remember those who served before.
Remember those who are no more.
Remember those who serve today.
Remember them as we eat and play.
Remember our protectors -
who are not home today.
Remember them all on Memorial Day!

Wednesday, Mid-Week Worship Service 7:00 P.M.

On Track with our Powerful God

Memory Verses #2 for Monday, June 9th - God Empowers Us

"Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us." Romans 8:37

"But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary, and they shall walk, and not faint." Isaiah 40:31

Volunteers are still needed and would be very much appreciated. See Penny or Mary Lynn if you have any questions.

Our Purpose

Our purpose as a nation is firm. Yet our wounds as a people are recent and unhealed and lead us to pray. We do not yet have the distance of history, but our responsibility to history is already clear: to answer these attacks and rid the world of evil. War has been waged against us by stealth and deceit and murder. This nation, is peaceful, but fierce when stirred to anger. This conflict was begun on the timing and terms of others. It will end in a way and at an hour of our choosing. This world God created is of moral design. Grief and tragedy are only for a time. But goodness, remembrance, and love have no end. And the Lord of life holds all who die and all who mourn.

President George W. Bush (National Day of Prayer and Remembrance)

Memorial Day

To all the heart wounds touched afresh this day
As on the Soldier's resting place we lay
Thy flowers, Christ, in tender memory,
Give healing thou,
This eventide.

And for the sorrowing ones who yet remain,
To whom the heart-break and the bitter pain
Come like the memory of an old song's sad refrain,
Have pity thou,
This eventide.

For all the losses of the lonely years-
For all the weight of shed and unshed tears,
For all forebodings, and all coming fears,
Give quietness,
This eventide.

By all the flower of youth in battle slain,
By all the woman's heritage of pain;
The prayer that it may not have been in vain,
We leave with thee,
This eventide.
