July 4th Fireworks

Bursts of light in the sky,
Marking Independence Day high.
Colors spread and spirits soar, Freedom's echoes forevermore.

Stars and stripes wave proud,
Voices lifted in a crowd.
Fireworks light the night,
Celebrating freedom's flight.

Heroes Die For Me

I am the flag
I look down upon this land called America I have been here since this great nation was formed, I have seen each battle fought I have seen the heroes die for me, for my country.
Thank you all those of you
Who have kept me flying in the breeze Keeping this country united as one.
Thank you those of you who have sacrificed your lives,
Giving up all that I may still fly,
Watching over the citizens of this nation.
Thank you all those of you who have ever fought, I am grateful for you.

You risked everything; you faced death each day,
Faced fear, faced many terrible things.
And because of you, my thank you rings out,
Filling the sky, echoing from the hills
They find their way to the graveyards,
And to all of you still living,
You are a special kind of person.
To anyone who has ever served this country,
And to those serving today
Thank you.
As I watch life from atop my flagpole,
As I think of all you've done.
My feelings become too powerful for words
And all I can say is thank you.

The Greatness of America

I sought for the greatness and genius of America in her commodious harbors and ample rivers, and it was not there.

I sought for the greatness and genius of America in her fertile fields and boundless forests, and it was not there.

I sought for the greatness and genius of America in her rich mines and her vast world commerce, and it was not there.

I sought for the greatness and genius of America in her public school system and her institutions of learning, and it was not there.

I sought for the greatness and genius of America in her democratic congress and her matchless constitution, and it was not there.

Not until I went into the churches of America and heard her pulpits flame with righteousness did I understand the secret of her genius and power.

America is great because America is good,
and if America ever ceases to be good,
America will cease to be great.

Alexis de Tocqueville
