Some Labor Day Tidbits...

Be grateful for the doors of opportunity – and for friends who oil the hinges.

Until the day comes when our work is over, our task is to make our labor a testimony to God's Glory.

A person is not paid for having a head and hands,
But for using them ~Elbert Hubbard

Remember to hide when you get to work because they say a good worker is hard to find!

FINISH THE WORK

*While working for Jesus
We have to press on till we finish
Laboring for our master
And selfish goals relinquish
To look on the harvest fields
That are already ripe
To reap in the lost souls
Of every color and stripe
Loving souls as we labor
The way that Jesus did
Giving out the saving message
Not letting the gospel light be hid
We must finish the work
That Jesus gave us to do
To lay up treasures in heaven
And to our calling ever be true.*

Copied

It's Labor Day!

Throw up our feet,
Start up the grill,
Toss on the burgers
And we'll all eat our fill.

Put up the tools,
Watch the grass grown,
Forget the leak
And the commode overflow.

The dishes can wait;
Go out and play.
There's good reason to be lazy...
It's called Labor Day!
