A Grandma's Poem

It seems that grandmas always need
A little one to hold;
To kiss and love with all their hearts,
To shelter from the cold.

It gives me so much pleasure
When you sit upon my knee.
To know as I grow older
You will always keep me company.

I'll tell you lots of stories;
I'll sing you lullabies.
And you will know I love you more
With each beautiful day that goes by.

I used to hold your mommy
And hug and kiss her too.
I love her very much, you know
The same way she loves you.

I used to wish that she could stay
my baby all her life.
But God intended for her to become a mommy and a wife.

And that's why He makes grandchildren,
To fill the empty gap.
It would be such a lonely world without you.
Come, sit on Grandma's lap.

To Realize

To realize the value of a sister, ask someone who doesn't have one.
To realize the value of ten years, ask a newly divorced couple.
To realize the value of four years, ask a graduate.
To realize the value of one year, ask a student who failed a final exam.
To realize the value of nine months, ask a mother who gave birth to a still-born.
To realize the value of one month, ask a mother who has given birth to a premature baby.
To realize the value of one week, ask an editor of a weekly newspaper.
To realize the value of one hour, ask the couple anxiously waiting to be re-united.
To realize the value of one minute, ask a person who has missed the train, bus or plane.
To realize the value of one second, ask a person who has survived an accident.
To realize the value of one millisecond, ask the person who has won a silver medal in the Olympics.
To realize the value of a friend or loved one, lose one.
Time waits for no one. Treasure every moment you have.

Grandparents

Few can bring the warmth
We can find in their embrace,
And little more is needed to bring love,
Than the smile on their face.

They've a supply of precious stories.
Yet they've time to wipe a tear,
Or give us reasons to make us laugh,
They grow more precious through the years.

I believe that God sent us grandparents
As our legacy from above,
To share the moments of our life.
As extra measures of His love.

Grandparent's Advice

Don't pamper the baby,
Don't run to each cry;
Don't rock that new infant
And don't lullaby;
Don't coddle or cuddle,
That's all there is to it!
Don't spoil that sweet baby...
Let us grandparents do it!
