Happy Birthday: Natalie Burnett (Oct. 28th)
 Sam Williams, Jr. (Oct. 29th)

Our church will be having a Pastor Appreciation Fellowship for Pastor Cody and his family next Sunday night, November 9th at 6:00 P.M. at the Fellowship Hall. We are asking that each family bring some type of finger food and the church will provide the dessert. There will be a time set aside for Expressions of Appreciation if you would like to share some scripture, read a card or whatever the Lord lays upon your heart.

We would like to take time out to acknowledge, honor and celebrate the efforts of Pastor Cody's leadership here at Marbleton. Thank you, Pastor Cody, for accepting the Lord's direction in becoming our pastor. We prayed and sought the Lord's will for a long time and God sent us the right pastor!

*And how shall they preach, except they be sent?
as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!*
Romans 10:15

PASTOR APPRECIATION

The only time a pastor should receive any praise,
Is when the Bible is reflected in his ways.
A pastor is called by God and is used to feed God's flock,
Therefore, his faith should be as Jesus; solid as a rock.
He does not fear anything or anyone but the Lord,
When tempted he uses the word as a two-edged sword.
The flock should follow the pastor without question or doubt,
They must be led by the Holy Spirit if they are expected to shout.
Well Glory and Amen, to acknowledge that Gog's word is always true,
They back it up in their daily walk as the Holy Spirit
Reveals to them what to do.
This is a pastor, who preaches the word without compromise,
In God's sight is a pastor that is very wise.
Therefore, it is alright to encourage God's servant to stay strong,
While he continues to preach the gospel and bring sinners to Christ
Where they belong.

Hebrews 13:17 says, "Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you."

Think about that. Before God, our pastor is responsible for guiding us spiritually. We should want that burden to be joyous, not grievous. The passage indicates that causing grief for the pastor would be of no benefit.

We honor God and make things better for our church when we give honor to those He has appointed as our leaders.

Thank You Pastor Cody!

With our sincere appreciation for your dedicated service!
You are a blessing to this congregation!

We continually remember before our God and Father
Your work produced by faith, your labor prompted by love,
And your endurance inspired by hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.
