The Scent of Pine

The lovely tree adorned with lights
Glow in the gathering night...
While outside winter magic paints
A wonderland of white.

The scent of pine perfumes the air,
And, oh, the memories of days gone by
When I was small,
Of other Christmas trees.

With Daddy sitting in his chair
To read the story old,
Of Baby Jesus, wise men and
Their frankincense and gold.

And Mother knitting mittens warm
In yarn of green and red,

While children listened, eyes aglow,
All dressed to go to bed.

Oh; what a flood of memories,
So filled with joy are mine;
What magnificent sight and smell.
A lighted Christmas pine!

Home for the Holidays

The warm kitchen smells of nutmeg and clove,
A plump turkey waits on the stove,
Sweet potatoes sport a marshmallow crown,
Gravy's in the pan turning nice and brown.
Spicy pumpkin pies lined up in a row,
The table's all set and arranged just so,
Pink camellias float in a cut glass dish,
The whole family's home to grant Mama's wish.
