What Jesus Wants

It isn't your gold or silver,
your talents great or small,
your voice, or your gift or drawing,
or the crowd you go with at all;
it isn't your friends or pastimes,
your looks or your clothes so gay;
it isn't your home or family,
or even the things that you say;
it isn't your choice of amusements,
it isn't the life you lead,
it isn't the thing you prize the most,
or the books you like to read;
no, it isn't the things you have, dear,
or the things you like to do,
the Master is searching deeper...
He seeks not yours, but you.
It's your heart that Jesus longs for,
your will to be made His own,
with self on the cross forever,
and Jesus alone on the throne.

TRUISMS

1. Prayer is not a spare wheel that you pull out when in trouble; it is a "steering wheel" that directs us in the right path throughout life.
2. Do you know why a car's windshield is so large & the rear view mirror is so small? Because our past is not as important as our future. So, look ahead and move.
3. Friendship is like a book. It takes a few seconds to burn, but it takes years to write.
4. All things in life are temporary. If going well, enjoy it, they will not last forever. If going wrong, don't worry, they can't last long either.
5. Old friends are like Gold! New friends are Diamonds! If you get a Diamond, don't forget the Gold! Because to hold a Diamond, you always need a base of Gold!
6. Often when we lose hope and think this is the end, God smiles from above and says, "Relax sweetheart, it's just a bend, not the end!"
7. When God solves your problems, you have faith in His abilities; when God doesn't solve your problems, He has faith in your abilities.
8. A blind person asked a friend: "Can there be anything worse than losing your eye sight?" He replied: "Yes, losing your vision."
9. When you pray for others, God listens to you and blesses them; and sometimes, when you are safe and happy, remember that someone has prayed for you.
10. Worrying does not take away tomorrow's troubles; it takes away today's peace.

The New Beginning

Even now in the chill of winter
Beneath the frozen earth,
Unseen and silently growing
Are the seeds of a new season's birth.
After the gray days of winter
The colors of spring seem to shout,
"That Old Man Winter has gone now, Come on, it's time to come out!"
Then you can smell the fragrance
Of the first sweet flowers of spring,
And see the bright shiny newness
That seems to pervade everything.
