GOOD FRIDAY

Dear Lord, in this Good Friday
Thank you for carrying the cross I could never carry.
By Your wounds, I am healed.
By Your love, I'm forgiven.
By Your sacrifice, I'm redeemed.
By Your grace, I'm saved.
By Your guidance, I'm found.
In Your mercy, I find strength.
In Your light, I find clarity.
In Your Word, I find the way.
I love You, Jesus.
All the glory be to you, my Savior, my King,
my eternal love.

When people cut off branches and spread them in the way for Jesus triumphal entry into Jerusalem, what if the palm branches had objected? What if they protested being cut from the trees because they would rather be used for shade, or because they didn't like being walked on?

What a ridiculous idea. It's unthinkable that a tree or a branch could have any control over what happens to it. Their owner can do as he pleases and he knows how to make the best use of them. AHA! See First Corinthians 6:19, 20; you are not your own, for you have been bought with a price.

Who are we to refuse to be used by our Master, our owner? If He chooses to allow us to wave a banner of praise for Him, or to be a doormat, why do we think we have the right to object? We may not understand His purpose, but it is our PRIVILEGE to be used for His honor and glory. We need only remember He knows how to make the best use of our lives. Our part is to trust and to yield to His will.
