"Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord.."

Psalm 33:12

Wednesday, Mid-Week Worship Service 7:00 P.M.

Thomas Jefferson – A Prayer for the Nation "Almighty God, Who has given us this good land for our heritage; We humbly beseech Thee that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of Thy favor and glad to do Thy will. Bless our land with honorable ministry, sound learning, and pure manners. Save us from violence, discord, and confusion, from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way. Defend our liberties, and fashion into one united people, the multitude brought hither out of many kindreds and tongues. Endow with Thy spirit of wisdom those whom in Thy name we entrust the authority of government, that there may be justice and peace at home, and that through obedience to Thy law, we may show forth Thy praise among the nations of the earth. In the time of prosperity fill our hearts with thankfulness, and in days of trouble, suffer not our trust in Thee to fail; all of which we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

Doing your own thing, going your own way and prayerlessness is our declaration of independence from God. Jesus gave us the ultimate example of what it means to live in relationship with God.

"For without me ye can do nothing." (John 15:5)

Every moment we draw breath is a gift from God, and He wants our lives to be filled with His strength. When we live to love and serve Him through our moment-by-moment prayer and reliance on His Word, we are declaring our dependence on Him.

Independence Day

In the year of 1776

That paper was decreed

They were tired of oppression

And wanted to be freed

They wrote a Declaration

So the whole world would see

This was "the home of the brave

And the land of the free"

They signed that piece of parchment

The leaders of this land—

Knowing, divided they would fall

But, together they could stand

A new world lay before them

Untamed from shore to shore

They swore they would protect it

If it meant going to war

Battles have been fought—

And many lives have been lost

So sad something so basic

Has such a high, high cost

Seems freedom is a luxury

There's some would bind us all —

Like then, together, we can stand

But divided, we will fall

More than two hundred years

Have passed by since that day

That each of us celebrate

In our own different way

We should be proud and thankful

Pay our share of the cost—

Not take freedom for granted

For it easily could be lost

One Nation Without God

America, the beautiful.

Home of the brave and free,

is threatened by an evil

that we don't seem to see.

We are "One nation, under God."

Guided by His loving light,

but we'll be a nation "without" God

if we don't stand and fight.

We, the vast majority,

must join hand in hand

before the small minority takes God's name from our land.

No matter our religion,

we have a job to do;

We must band together

to defeat the ungodly few.

God gave us freedom in this land to worship and to pray.

How can we idly just sit by watching it be taken away?

There is a God in Heaven.

Let's not let His light go dim.

How can He bless us from above

if we won't acknowledge Him?
