Heaven's Grocery Store

I was walking down life's highway a long time ago. One day I saw a sign that read "Heaven's Grocery Store." I saw a host of angels and one said, "My child, shop with care."

First I got some Patience. Love was in the same row. Further down was Understanding, you need that everywhere you go! I got a box of Wisdom, a bag or two of Faith; I just couldn't miss the Holy Ghost, for He was all over the place.

I stopped to get some Strength and Courage to help me run the race. By then my basket was getting full, but I remembered I needed some Grace. I didn't forget Salvation, for Salvation, that was free. So tried to get enough of that to save both you and me.

Then I started to the counter to pay my grocery bill, for I thought I had everything to do my Master's will. Walking up the aisle, I grabbed some Prayer and put that in, for I knew when I stepped outside, I would run right into sin.

Peace and Joy were plentiful, they were on the last shelf. Songs of Praises were hanging near, so I just helped myself.

Then I said to the angel, "Now how much do I owe you?" He just smiled and said, "Just take them everywhere you go." Again I smiled at him and said, "How much do I really owe?" He smiled again and said, "My child, Jesus paid your bill in full a long time ago."

Everything a Christian needed was in that grocery store; all you could carry and you could come back for more!

Honesty

One Monday morning a minister boarded a city bus and gave the driver a one-dollar bill. As he was finding a seat, he counted the change and noticed that the driver had given him too much money. He sat down and contemplated what would have seemed good fortune to some people.

Finally he went to the bus driver and said, "Sir, you gave me too much change when I boarded the bus a while ago."

Without even looking at him, the driver said, "I know. I was at your church last night and heard you preach on 'Thou shalt not steal.' I just wanted to see if you practice what you preach."

Do we as Christians "practice what we preach"?
